

I have a phone, like most folks, to communicate when I want to, and in emergencies if necessary. It is not a retail device, except when I want it to be. Allowing solicitors to call me in my home violates my privacy. Wisconsin's No Call list has been a godsend, in protecting my privacy and that of my children. Do not change it, leave it as is, it works!